NEWSLETTER

Dear Addison Place Homeowner,

Addison Place Homeowners' Association (APHOA) provides a newsletter to inform homeowners of the happenings, information and developments in our neighborhood. This newsletter augments our website <https://addisonplace.org/>.

New Website Debuts

<https://addisonplace.org/>

The Addison Place Board of Directors is pleased to announce the implementation of a new website designed to keep homeowners aware of information relevant to Addison Place including a document center for easy access to our by-laws/ASC guidelines, directory of important phone numbers, announcements, newsletter, Board meeting schedules, activities and other pertinent information.

There will be a link available to contact the Management Company, the Board of Directors and the Architectural Standards Committee.

The Board encourages all homeowners to stay connected at <https://addisonplace.org/> by providing your name, email and house number and street.

Accessibility will be limited to homeowners. You may sign up by completing the information located on the home screen of the website:
